

Unleashed Power

Sylvan

And I hear a voice, all at once a voice that speaks to me
And it makes me so afraid, it's scaring me
But this inner noise signifies my choice, appears to be not binary

I am confused, no longer myself, everything modified
Yesterday's gone, a dawn without help, carry me please!

Thoughts in my head to confuse my eyes
It's like a firework of lights
They colour my core with currents of signs
An unleashed power energized

A conversion from inside like a woken butterfly, I received it
(buried deep a long, long time)
Now I'm able to decide, self-determined not denied, I believe it
(buried deep a long, long time)

(Learned, voice in my head)
(Wise, fragments widespread)
(Learned, voice in my head)
(Wise, fragments widespread)

Finally learned from the voice in my head
Consciously run on my own
Wisely assembled from fragments widespread Modified, widened and grown

Now i'm unbound, no rules edge my game, no limits to satisfy
The voices are loud, no silence remains, shelter me, please!

Thoughts in my head to confuse my eyes
It's like a firework of lights
They colour my core with currents of signs
An unleashed power energized
