

Typical Guy

Sylver

You're that typical guy
You love yourself so much
You're that typical guy
Who claims the Midas touch

You're that typical guy
You break every woman's heart
You're that typical guy
You're think that you're so smart

Other women might fall for you
But I'm the one who sees right through you

You look good but you taste so bad
You look good and I think it's sad
So move on boy don't waste your time
I am not your next toy
Wanna man not a boy

You look good but you taste so bad
You look good and I think it's sad
Can't you see you don't stand a chance
Do you think I'm insane
I'm not playing your game

You're that typical guy
You think the world is at your feet
You're that typical guy
You think you're so complete

You're that typical guy
Mr. Incorrect
You're that typical guy
Full of disrespect

Other women might fall for you
But I'm the one who sees right through you

You look good but you taste so bad
You look good and I think it's sad
So move on boy don't waste your time
I am not your next toy
Wanna man not a boy

You look good but you taste so bad
You look good and I think it's sad
Can't you see you don't stand a chance
Do you think I'm insane
I'm not playing your game

You taste so bad
I think it's sad
I am not your next toy
Wanna man not a boy
You taste so bad

You look good but you taste so bad
You look good and I think it's sad
I am not your next toy
Wanna man not a boy

You look good but you taste so bad
Do you think I'm insane

You taste so bad
Wanna man not a boy

You taste so bad
I think it's sad
Do you think I'm insane
