

I Feel Cheated

Sylvia

He's so much in love
It's plain to see
And even though I try
He never smiled that way for me
She's a lucky girl
She's got all I ever needed
I can't help myself
I feel cheated

I feel cheated
My love was meant for only him
I feel cheated
To have to live a memory
To only have him in my dreams
I feel cheated

To know I'll never kiss his lips again
To know I'll never spend another night
Alone with him
To know I couldn't win his love
Like she did
It just don't seem fair
I feel cheated

I feel cheated
My love was meant for only him
I feel cheated
To have to live a memory
To only have him in my dreams
I feel cheated

I feel cheated
