Sylvia

Tumbleweed
You're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed
Freedom is the air you breathe

But if you don't stop long enough
To let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed
You're gonna end up lonely

You've been riding the range
All alone for so long
No one can hold you
The wind is too strong
I'd tell you I love you and ask you to stay
But you're already drifting away

Tumbleweed
You're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed
Freedom is the air you breathe

But if you don't stop long enough
To let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed
You're gonna end up lonely

You won't be broken
You won't be tied down
You drift with the wind
Barely touching the ground

But late at night
Out there under the stars
There's an empty place in your arms

Tumbleweed
You're living a cowboy's dream
Tumbleweed
Freedom is the air you breathe

But if you don't stop long enough
To let yourself fall in love
Tumbleweed
You're gonna end up lonely

Tumbleweed
You're gonna end up lonely
Tumbleweed
