

Pigrim Road

Symfonia

Out in the mist, the rainbow behind
Above the mountains, a road to the sky
Screaming for mercy, Spinning like fools
Everyone longs for the eternal soul

Not long ago
There were roses along the way
Trust and belief in the mystery
Noone could make such a vision collapse
Until it fell...

There's a bridg across the land
For the fen ones who intent to be
On a trip to the unknown
Walking down the Piligrim Road

There's a bridg across the land
For the fen ones who intent to be
On a trip to the unknown
Walking down the Piligrim Road
