

I need no glory
Leave me unsung
I'm older than the ocean but I stay forever young

I am Apollo
Raven and wolf
And if you see me coming better pay your debt in full

(So cut your hair)
So cut your hair
(And bend your knee)
And bend your knee
Build up your golden alter, make it shine for all to see

You can keep your seven wonders
And I don't need your belief
I am, I was, and I will be

True is my arrow
Steady my bow
I fought in troubled times no one alive today would know

Beware my sister
Bathed in moonlight
When we ride out together, we only hunt at night

(So cut your hair)
So cut your hair
(And bend your knee)
And bend your knee
Build up your golden alter, make it shine for all to see

You can keep your seven wonders
And I don't need your belief
I am, I was, and I will be

So cut your hair
And bend your knee
Build up your golden alter, make it shine for all to see

You can keep your seven wonders
And I don't need your belief
I am, I was, and I will be

I am, I was, and I will be
