

Caving In

SYML

Fall out the exit
Lean on me now I see two of you in both my eyes
Blur out my edges
Punch-drunk and love-stoned
Need something to hold me upright

Let me know
Won't you let me know?

Steady, my darling, don't worry I've got you
And you got me most of the time
Mezcal and lust bleach the message I'm sending
They taste like you when you were all mine

Would you let me know?
Won't you let me know?

It's so hard to believe what you won't let me see
My head's caving in
Oh

It's so hard to believe what you won't let me see
Won't you let me know?
Won't you let me know?

Oh it's so hard to believe what you won't let me see
My head's caving in
My head's caving in
