Ghosts

SYML

In my head in my heart
I feel great I feel lost
And I want you to know

It's my life, I am "pro"
I know things you shouldn't know
But I'm willing to show

I don't think about it giving it up
I don't think about it giving it up
This is me and I'm making it up
Is anybody real enough?

I see ghosts wherever I go
You know where they're hiding out
Is anybody real enough?
All these ghosts won't fight for their souls
I know we can break em out
Is anybody real enough?

I am not what you thought
I love hate, it gets me off
And I want you to know

So come on love, let's get drunk
On our dreams, America!
Am I drinking alone?

I don't think about it giving it up
I don't think about it giving it up
This is me and I'm making it up
Is anybody real enough?

I see ghosts wherever I go
You know where they're hiding out
Is anybody real enough?
All these ghosts won't fight for their souls
I know we can break em out
Is anybody real enough?

I am one, I am all
You know me I never fall
I keep it down on the low

So come on love, let's get punk
Let's get high and tear shit up
And keep it all on a phone

I see ghosts wherever I go
You know where they're hiding out
Is anybody real enough?
All these ghosts won't fight for their souls
I know we can break em out
Is anybody real enough?
