

Lost Myself

SYML

Love is in the actions
Like a brace on a broken knee
Gimme time and give me patience
That will be enough for me

Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh
Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh

I think I lost myself, yeah, I lost myself

I wish I was truly free
Like a bird at the mercy of the breeze
Just trusting in the sun
There
Like a mother's love

Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh
Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh
I think I lost myself, yeah, I lost myself
(Oh-oh)

Oh
Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh
Breaking through the clouds feels impossible now, oh

But I found myself walking home
