SYML

Drunk and looking for a friend
Who understands? You understand
Filling up my cart again
When we collided

I stumble but I won't chase her
A shot in the dark no tracer
I swallow my pride
She wears her heart like a fiery sun
I wasn't ready for Marion

Cleaning up my dirty mind
But not today, we've got time
Kick it into overdrive
I fell in deeper

I smile like a child so clever
She won't even know what hit her
A snake in the grass
I lose my head as I come undone
I wasn't ready for Marion

Never met a girl so nice
I hope you find yours
'Cause I got mine
Ain't no other better time
Go out and meet her

And straighten your tie when you face her
A shot to the heart no chaser
Let her burn in your chest
Oh what a beautiful day my son
I hope you're ready 'cause here she comes
I wasn't ready for Marion
