

Meant To Stay Hid

SYML

I wasn't built for this my head can't make any damn sense of th is so it sings
Can't remember the smell and I can't recall the taste but I try everyday

If I wasn't so afraid
I'd shine a light up to space
Then my soul could be
Strong enough to see your face
One more day

One more day

I found notes that you hid sharing secrets and fears that were meant to stay hid
Moving stuff out your room leaves me emptier than the room wher e you stayed

If I wasn't so afraid
I'd shine a light up to space
Then my soul could be
Strong enough to see your face
Give me one more day

One more day (day)

And if I wasn't so afraid
I'd shine a light up to space
Then my soul could be
Strong enough to see your face
One more day
