

Oblivion

SYML

Like the salt inside the 7 seas
I have been cursed to be
Drifting through this barren land
Stuck out here where none can stand

I have tended to my bitter root
But vengeance bore me sweeter fruit
Cold the blood that runs in me
My righteous life is buried deep

And Lo, watch as I will rise
Lo, watch me come alive
I will live forever
I will live forever

From the arches of the Golden Gate
To the tombs across this wretched state
Bodies buried without guilt
Don't question what your hands have built

So judge ye not the heart of man
Judge me not lest ye be damned
Entitled to my handsome sum
I'll wait on death like everyone

And Lo, watch as I will rise
Lo, watch me come alive
I will live forever
I will live forever
And see the earth will open wide
There within the raging fire
I will burn forever
I will live forever

Lo, watch as I will rise
Lo, watch me come alive
I will live forever
I will live forever
And see the earth will open wide
There within the raging fire
I will burn forever
I will live forever

You will know me though I have no name
Far beyond the end of days
When time has stopped and I have won
Forget me not, oblivion
