

YES AND KNOW

SYML

Innocent like an old priest
He talks to God
Who put blood in my drink?
Offset my loss
New paint on an old sink
Don't hide the rot
You can almost taste it

This is how you know
This is how you know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know
And now I know
This is how you know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know

I'm not more than you think
I have not grown
Better than the hate you see
That's not my fault, no
Yeah, I put blood in my drink
And I choked up
I choked up

This is how you know
This is how you know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know
And now I know
This is how you know, know, know know know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know
This is how you know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know
This is how you know
You can't hide anymore
And now I know

Who put blood in my
Who put blood in my
Who put blood in my drink?
Who put blood in my
Who put blood in my
Who put blood in my
Who put blood in my drink?
