

A Life Condemned

Synestia

A life condemned returned to me again

As my unburdened soul becomes whole once again
A revelation to befall me
Yet again, I seek more
Ancient scriptures depict a most wretched resurrection

Forged in darkness, a soul to return
Within the shackles of mortality no more
Roam this realm until the dawn of this world's demise

A spectral harvest
To reach the depths
Feed the darkness
A path for the heartless
Within this wake of despair
A destiny I am to bare
A life condemned
Returned to me again

A life condemned
Returned to me again

A gate to the netherworld
Opened by cataclysmic ritual

A path for the heartless, darkness
Death magic
Deliver her to me

An offering to the flames
The furtherance of maledictions

Forged in darkness, a soul to return
Within the shackles of mortality no more
Roam this realm until the dawn of this world's demise

A spectral harvest
To reach the depths
Feed the darkness
A path for the heartless
Within this wake of despair
A destiny I am to bare
A life condemned
Returned to me again

An offering to the flames
The furtherance of maledictions
A path for the heartless
A path to through the darkness
A life condemned
Returned to me again
