

Arrival

Synestia

Crimson light bleeds in from the void
A figure foreign to this world
Invading thoughts of the innocent
Possessing all knowing power
This being knows no god
An omen of the barren void

Our planet once rich and pure
Now seething with despair

Eroding the mind
Eradicating hope
Eternity is no more
The arrival of this prophetic oracle detested

Perspective shifts in the wake of extinction
Solace is suffocated by our ruin
Our nightmares now fiends of fruition
Petrified by the nothing that awaits
Corrupting the collective with every conscious moment
A celestial cloud from our terrestrial remains
Our chapter in this cosmos will come to a close

A manifestation of damnation
This is our final absolution

Eroding the mind
Eradicating hope
Eternity is no more
The arrival of this prophetic oracle detested

Our planet once rich and pure
Once teeming with life, now seething with despair
Are we all that lives
Or will others meet this same fate

Earth is doomed
