

Wrath prevails
Awaken deathly embrace
Cower, as your loved ones writhe before your eyes
I am your fucking end

Ripping and tearing
Tortured wails fill the air
And from below, fire and brimstone surge
Rivers of blood pour from ashen clouds
Swallow this land in fire
Blanket the streets in red

Crack the sky
I now transcend your gods
Bid farewell to your mortal shell
Pestilence breeds
Crack the sky
Hail perpetual night

Ere the fallen kingdom
A necropolis forged in lifeless bodies
With your final breath, fill your lungs with ash
Awaken, deathly embrace

I will enact my vitriol
My unbridled rage upon you all
For what you have done will never be forgiven
Until my last breath
With my eyes rolled back
I'll see you burn for eternity
Condemned, by the damned
In life is death
You will be withdrawn from my memories again & again

Ere the fallen kingdom
The sweet scent of calamity haunts these desolated grounds
My soulless eyes gaze
My will be done
I cast thee into the abyss where she lay

Crack the sky
I now transcend your gods
Bid farewell to your mortal shell
Pestilence breeds
Crack the sky
Hail perpetual night

I bring your death
I am the fucking end of everything you are
