

Premonitions

Synestia

Sleep, no more

Fond of preemptive lies
Deteriorate our lives
Lay silent
Shame myself
Lay with my conscious body fighting
Plighting hell

Dream
Product of torture
Product of prophecy
Product of torture
Passing lullaby
Product of torture
Product of prophecy
Can't decipher here

Touching me
Don't think
Don't blink
Don't see
Damaging me
We try
Capacitated recursing

Write off the demons that eat your mind
Rise of the demons that eat at the weak
Right in my cortex, bleeding me out
Blinded, you're seeing the fall of me now

Tonight
Blame lies hold to all we know
Losing hope of letting go
Losing sleep until we find it
Blinded

Say goodbye

Roped your here
Please somebody set me free
I'm only dying to fall down the entire dream
Never to return
Fed to run down the wrong turn
Watch me burn
Where do your demons go
Rip out the demon
Bleed out the worst

I know you're feeling impatient
Premonition, Premonition
Beating ourselves to feel a little better
Telling ourselves we won't do it again
We dissolve all the words while sleeping
My veins are coursing to feel again now

Let me sleep again, again

Pray
Trust
Tears
Reprise
We try
Prayed on

Bleak kingdom
Rise
We try
Here is our falling star
Pry me out
Now
Now

Pried of sleep enslaved I sow
Praying

Blame lies hold to all we know
Blinded
Lay my head and see my ghost
Premonition leaving owed
Losing sleep until we find it
Find it
Find it
