

Scarlet Moon

Synestia

Denounced, this land shall soon be cleansed of righteous decree

Oh, grand deceiver
Your covenant no longer free
From their weaved webs of duplicity

Oh, your kingdom to be destroyed
As psalms guide the eyeless masses to their final passage
For what remains bound to mortal cast
Shall meet the day the damned roam the earth

A crown of fading embers
The king of an ashen realm
My eulogy for thine sainted disease

My bleeding, severed heartstrings
My forsaken will
Tempered by pernicious flames
Deathly silence
Take these promised lands
Consume them in eternal twilight
Beneath a scarlet moon, I ascend

Rid me of my will
Rid me of my restraint
It consumes me
Consumes my soul
Consume me whole

Rid me of my will
Rid me of my restraint
Consumed by wrath under moonlit sky
This cleansing shall unfold

Gather, my wicked creatures
The time approaches to reclaim this realm
Beneath a scarlet moon, I ascend

Gather, my wicked creatures
The time approaches to reclaim this realm
Beneath a scarlet moon, I ascend
And for not more than a moment
The screaming inside my mind subsides

My bleeding, severed heartstrings
My forsaken will
Tempered by pernicious flames
Deathly silence
Take these promised lands
By spectral embrace
Come, oblivion
Beneath a scarlet moon, it begins
