

Rest Yourself

Syreeta

Time moves on and waits for no one
Taking us through many doors
Moving through these different cycles
Where we're bound we need to know
So let's take a moment to give back and give Accomplish in this lifetime, yeah
The purpose that brought us here

Take the time to rest yourself
A tired mind won't pull your body through, no
Take the time to rest yourself
Do the best you can it's all for you

These are not our days of leisure
Everything is hard coming by, oh, yeah
And where can we forget that pleasure
Can be a part of working life
So let's take a moment to enjoy being alive
And celebrate the spirit, yeah
That looked at every dawn to light

Now take the time to rest yourself
A tired mind won't pull your body through, no
You've got to take the time to rest yourself
Do the best you can it's all for you

Pa ra para pa...

Rest yourself... little while...
Rest your mind... (till the end)
