I been up till midnight, drivin' to nowhere
Bumpin' a slow song, can't get my head clear
I been up till sunrise, headed to nowhere
Hopin' that someone's missin' me somewhere

Drivin', just drivin'
Just tryin', just tryna get my head right
It'll all be better when, when I
When I just gotta get my head right

And it don't hit the same when you're all alone, and the money's insane, I k now
But it don't fill the void at all
And I promised my mom I'd do better, but they keep trying me so I'm With all the bullshit and fuck it all
I keep pretending everyone's as good as me
Shit's so weird, I cannot speak
Balled so hard, I think I peaked
All my exes still love me
Call me up, he wanna freak
All my opps lookin' distressed
How you copy then compete?
Oh, you just mad that your nigga want me
Oh, you just mad that we went ten weeks
Oh, you just mad that your ass ain't free
Scared to say shit so you fake kiki
Scared to cut a nigga so I left, ski-ski
I ain't scared of shit so I swing my meat
I ain't scared of shit so I let mine go
Pop my shit 'cause I can, I know

I been up till midnight, drivin' to nowhere (Nowhere, nowhere)

Drivin', just drivin' (Drivin')
Just tryin', just tryna get my head right
It'll all be better when, when I
When I just gotta get my head right

And I can't lose my focus, I know if hope is the goal, then I can't succumb like these cum-guzzlers at all (Nope)
And I know that if love is my purpose, I can't waste energy looking for enem ies, I just dub it all
I'm anti-beef, half y'all bitches be too cheap
Half a milli' when I bling, fuck I look like on my knees?
You really just mad 'cause I make it look easy
I'm really this bad, you should see it 3D
Brought you this bag, you should spend it on me
All of my time precious, so be
