

Tell 'em it's you
I'm at the loot, I'm at a rage
Oh, stay out the way

Comin' down the side of me, I like to get it poppin'
But these bitches in my business got me all cho-chosin' violence
If you see me out in public, you don't know me, keep it silent
In the bedroom, I be screamin', but outside, I keep it quiet

Keep it on the lowski, I'm the lowest of the lowest
Wanna see if you can keep it up, nobody know shit

I need you to get the fuck off my space (Yeah)
Replacements on the way with the rage
The pussy's feelin' like a great escape (Ah-ah)
I don't need no drink, orders don't change
I'm fuckin', I ain't makin' love no more (Pussy)
You got a new bitch, what the fuck you cryin' for?
I'm movin' selfish, callin' all my favorite hoes
You know how to reach me every time and it plays in your mind
No rest, I feel fly, we can meet in your car
And the way I've been alone, I'm gon' save you a spot
You can't be outside 'cause the block is too hot
I'm, and I'm all on your mind
Wherever you are, don't call me (Let's go)

Comin' down the side of me, I like to get it poppin' (Alright)
But these bitches in my business got me all chochosin' violence (Yeah, yeah)
If you see me out in public, you don't know me, keep it silent (Oh, hey)

Wanna see if you can keep it up, nobody know shit (Yeah)

I need total confidential private shit (Yeah)
No one knows, thinkin' I'm a grown bitch (It's lit)
Times have changed, now we on the first-class jet (Straight up)
Don't work my nerves, you know I get bored of that
We fuckin', we ain't makin' love no more
You talk that talk, but he know my intuition strong
Wherever you are, whatever you need
Don't call me, don't worry 'bout me

Comin' down the side of me, I like to get it poppin'
But these bitches in my business got me all cho-chosin' violence (Alright)
