I've just discovered you, different from usual
It makes me smile like this
A new secret has born and it's fluttering in my heart
There's no need of soft words

Surely Love will lead the way
As soon as I noticed it, everything has changed Ah ah ah
I want your love and lead the way (lead the way)
Now you're like a vortex in my heart

I want to hide but your kindness is pulling me
I don't know anyone
So I'm just standing still (Standing still)
And this secret keeps increasing (make me feel yeah)
So why does my heart become lighter?

Please always lead the way
To spend the time with you letting this sweetness flows
I want your love and lead the way
Even when you bother me,
You're the only one I want to meet
