You don't know ma name, what's ma name?

Don't say, what you want to say now

All lies, don't let me cry

I want to know why you go away

My answer is obviously no no

You always tell me I'm sorry

Every day repeating the same story

Oh, today because of you, I cry again

One look, and know that it's your lies again

Although already hurt too deep (until now)

Don't want to comfort me

You are that type of person; this is really not funny

I don't need you anymore

I am the girlfriend, what?

Don't understand why you always look at other people

We have been together for quite a few years

How could you not even know my name

My name, my name, my name

Is wh- what?

My name, my name, my name

You don't know ma name, what's ma name?

This period of time is

What I have done is not enough

Or maybe I have

Areas I did wrong

Don't want this babe

I can't take it anymore

My answer is obviously no no

Although already hurt too deep (until now)

Don't want to comfort me

You are that type of person; this is really not funny

I don't need you anymore

I am the girlfriend, what?

Don't understand why you always look at other people

We have been together for quite a few years

How could you not even know my name

My name, my name, my name

Is wh- what?

My name, my name, my name

You don't know ma name, what's ma name?

You, all are lies

Don't fool with me, I don't believe anymore

I am always really afraid, because you perhaps

Really left me

I am the girlfriend, what?

Don't understand why you always look at other people

We have been together for quite a few years

How could you not even know my name

My name, my name, my name
Is wh- what?
My name, my name, my name
You don't know ma name, what's ma name?
