

It's Not Too Late

T-Bone Burnett

The wind turns like a dagger, the rain falls like a hammer
The sky has grown dark but it's not too late
The weather crashes down, what's lost cannot be found
The night is closing but it's not too late

It's not too late, it's not too late
It's not too late, it's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal but I will fear no evil

The ocean rolls like thunder, the tempest pulls us under
The dogs are howling but it's not too late
As broken structures rust, false idols turn to dust
All lies in ashes but it's not too late

It's not too late, it's not too late
It's not too late, it's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal but I will fear no evil

In the dark before the dawn, the echo of the siren song
Dies away like a ghost, as the day breaks

It's not too late, it's not too late
It's not too late, it's not too late
The atmosphere is lethal but I will fear no evil
