

Relentless

T-Bone Burnett

I stand and tremble in the driving rain while your love rages like a hurricane i can't break the silence as you still the wind but i can hear you breathing underneath my skin

i am relentless    almost senseless    you are relentless

i reel and stagger in the blinding light while your love flashes like a lightening strike so i find the darkness where i grow afraid but i cannot shake you and the blackness fades

i am relentless    almost senseless    you are relentless

you are relentless
this mercy convulses my pride
you are relentless
i find you wherever i hide
you are relentless
i have got nothing to win and so i give in i run and stumble as the mountains shake while your love blazes like a world in flames to shoot all fear into the desert sky as stars fall like water through the dead of night

i am relentless    almost senseless    you are relentless
