

You're Everything She Couldn't Be

T. Graham Brown

I gave her the world
She wanted the moon
I gave her the moon
She wanted the stars
I gave her my love
That was not enough
Loving someone
Should never be so hard

Your everything
She couldn't be
I am all you want
I'm all that you need
I couldn't let go of her
Till you held on to me
You made me see
Your everything
She couldn't be

A loser to her
Came a winner with you
And a winner with you
Could never lose
You gave me the strength
To try love again
Now that I'm strong
I can make it with you

Your everything
She couldn't be
I'm all you want
I'm all that you need
I couldn't let go of her
Till you held on to me
You made me see
Your everything
She couldn't be
You made me see
Your everything
She couldn't be
