

I Doubt It

T. Mills

I'd like to know
Who you been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable? Yeah
I'd like to know
Who you been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Oh
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Baby, I got it

I doubt it
Gave you something and you can't live without it
We hit some bumps in the road, no other way around it
And I've been try'na keep in touch, but you won't allow it
I heard you got a new man now, that you're super proud of Cool
But does he kiss you with a passion?
Does he get you off without you even asking?
Just tell me how real is it?
'Cause I'm in your city and I wouldn't mind a visit
We don't have to fuck, girl, we could just kick it
Cause I miss you and I mean it this time, that's the difference
I know I did you wrong, but we got something right
I can't leave you alone, don't have a reason why
But if you're too far gone, then I'll let you go
Who you been giving your love to, I just want to know
But if you're too far gone, then I'll let you go
Who you been giving your love to, I just want to know

I'd like to know
Who you been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable? Yeah
I'd like to know
Who you been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Oh
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Baby, I got it

Yeah, you hoping I get the message
Yeah, you searching for new directions
Yeah, you taking your mom's suggestion
And I moved on to the next chick
Damn, I'm colder than the north pole
Ordered 3 more bottles, equals 6 more ho's
Dancing on the couch, don't know why she even wore clothes
Snapping all these selfies, she caption this, "Squad goals"
Meanwhile, I'm puffing on a Marlboro
Bought a pound of weed, homie, should've worn cargos
With some white girl that you can't find in the States
Back in 9th grade, you could find me in some Bape
She know I'm unfaithful, but I'm lying to her face
And when you get caught, you buy her another Wraith
And keep quiet, baby, diamonds in the safe
I know you riding, that's the price that you pay

I'd like to know

Who you been giving your love to
Does he make you comfortable? Yeah
I'd like to know
Who you been giving your love to
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Oh
Does he do it like me? Does he do it like I do?
Baby, I got it
