

Breakup

T-Pain

Yeah, oh, yeah
Baby, wake up, yeah!
Baby, wake up, yeah!

Girl, your bow be going crazy
Somebody I can reel real bullets
And I know you're tired away too lazy
To be wakin' up to all that bullshit
Yeah, let her go, let her go
She'd be with me, she didn't worry about you, you
I wanna call and let you know, let you know
So you won't think it came out the blue

Man, I hope y'all break up,
You'll be calling in the middle of the night
Now I'm listening to your fight
Making me a wake up, yeah
Please tell me what's the use
She didn't try to find an excuse
To make up, oh, oh
And I really think she don't care anymore
So man to man you're stupid
And I'm like man,
You should have known what she was doing
You need to break up, oh, oh
You need to break up, oh, oh!
You need to break up!

I've been sitting here watching her getting stressed out
Cause you've been claiming that she cheating on you
Man, and if you think about it,
You really want her to do what she do

Cause man, I hope you break up
You'll be calling in the middle of the night
Now I'm listening to your fight
Making me to wake up, yeah
Please tell me what's the use
She didn't try to find an excuse
To make up, oh, oh
And I really think she don't care anymore
So man to man you're stupid
And I'm like man,
You should have known what she was doing
You need to break up, oh, oh
You need to break up, oh, oh!
You need to break up!
I can't wait until you break up
She's gonna ride when you break up
