

Does She Know?

T-Pain

Does she know about the one that's on your side?
Does she know about the things you're trying to hide?
Does she know about the one that wants to kill you in your sleep?
Does she know you've gotten in way too deep?

Does she know?
Does she know?
Does she know?

Does she know about the crazy one that wants you dead and gone?
Does she know she's in your heart, she's not alone?

Boop
Shit hit the fan, oh lord this wasn't part of the plan
Thought you was the man, it's off now they got you caught with red hands
Come out, come out, you're surrounded
Dead or alive, they want the bounty
Tried to hide it from her, but she found it
Now we about to get up on some wild shit

Who you think you fooling?
You were so stupid, you done got reckless
Fuck you went to school at
They ain't teach you not to do that
You ain't checked the checklist
Ooh, you should've known better

Cause you done let her in
Now she got the win, you done set yourself up

Does she know about the one that's on your side?
Does she know about the things you're trying to hide?
Does she know about the one that wants to kill you in your sleep?
Does she know you've gotten in way too deep?

Does she know?
Does she know?
Does she know?

Does she know about the crazy one that wants you dead and gone?
Does she know she's in your heart, she's not alone?

Does she know?
