

Keep This from Me

T-Pain

I was chillin' with your mama the other day and she slipped up
Called me the wrong name I had to get up
Cause that's the same number I've been seeing in your phone lately
My brain was at a million miles an hour baby I can't make this shit up
You should've just told me you wanna split up
Ooh we gotta talk when you get home baby

(I had a feeling, had a feeling) I had a feeling you was doing something dumb as fuck
That shit got me numb as fuck
You gone have me running up

Some of this is my fault
I didn't say shit when I saw what I saw
Girl you can't deny now
Even yo daddy know that you got you a side jaw

How could you keep this from me
I can't believe I told you that I love you
You was undercover
Your mama and yo daddy ain't shit
When you see em tell both of em I said fuck em yeah

How could you keep this from me
I can't believe I told you that I love you
You was undercover
Your mama and yo daddy ain't shit
When you see em tell both of em I said fuck em yeah

How does it feel to know you took it too far
I kept it real now I'm calling this shit off
You broke the seal now you looking real lost

I had a feeling you was doing something stupid
Why'd I let you move in
Why would you do this

Some of this is my fault
I didn't say shit when I saw what I saw
Girl you can't deny now
Even yo daddy know that you got you a side jaw (goddamn)

How could you keep this from me
I can't believe I told you that I love you
You was undercover
Your mama and yo daddy ain't shit
When you see em tell both of em I said fuck em yeah

How could you keep this from me
I can't believe I told you that I love you
You was undercover
Your mama and yo daddy ain't shit
When you see em tell both of em I said fuck em yeah
