

Save You

T-Pain

You aint gotta watch your kids
You can get your nails did
I'll save ya
I'll save ya
And I can open up the doors
You can put on your clothes
And watch your behavior
Because I'm gonna save you girl
Now go and find you a rich white man
And maybe he can pay you
It might be minimum wage but
It's okay 'cause you're a new girl
And ain't nobody go beyond the mic
Callin "Cinnamon" to the stage girl
I can't wait girl
Because I'm gonna save you
Didn't worry about smelly fat dudes tryin' to lay you
Let's start with a brand new jive
And see where that takes you
From this moment on baby you're my girl
And this those goes out to all struggling strippers in the world
World, In the world
This goes out to all wannabe strippers in the world
In the world, world
Tat tarat tarat tat
(?)
Because I'm gonna save you girl
Now go and find you a rich white man
And maybe he can pay you
It might be minimum wage but
It's okay 'cause you're a new girl
And ain't nobody go beyond the mic
Callin "Cinnamon" to the stage girl
I can't wait girl
Because I'm gonna save you
Didn't worry about smelly fat dudes tryin' to lay you
Let's start with a brand new jive
And see where that takes you
From this moment on baby you're my girl
And this those goes out to all struggling strippers in the world
World, In the world
This goes out to all wanna be strippers in the world
In the world, world
Tat tarat tarat tat
