

BETTER

Ta-ku

You won't think twice
About the way you feel tonight
Oh, I used to hesitate, babe
But now I'm by your side
I speak my mind sometimes (And I don't mean it)
The only way it finds (The way to get to you)
No one could ever tell (If I am in the wrong)
That I'm better for your health

And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway

Just being around you makes everything better
Your name means happiness, spells it letter by letter
What you say to staying around for the rest of our days, yeah
'Cause I just can't get away

Things changed, I changed, you changed, feelings changed
Love ain't what it used to be
Gotta get used to this
I was down on my luck, like I ain't seen the light for a minute
I count days and the numbers and the digits in my bank roll
I know love, I know patience, the grind been slow but the same time as far as s what I don't know
Speeding, I've been speeding for your love, baby
Needing, I've been needing for the trust, baby
Can you blame me?
When I pull up in the Beamer do the 180
Someone tell me, have you her? That's my lil baby
I don't wanna say much, I was going crazy
I was trying to get paid for the most
Found out I was just chasing the ghost
Where do we go?

And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway
And I just can't getaway

Can't getaway (I can't getaway)
Can't getaway (I can't getaway)
Can't getaway (No, my baby)
Can't getaway (No, no)
Can't getaway (No, no)
I can't getaway (No, no)
I can't getaway (No)
Oh
