

RUNAWAY

Ta-ku

I see you at your wake
Time don't make no mistakes
I'll give you everything so everything can
I see you wanna change
But I can't just wait all day, yeah-yeah
I'll give you time, you give me time, I'll make you

Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway

It'll take alot for me to leave it all behind
Some decisions you just can't rewind
I know I'd rather spend all of my days and nights
Fighting for you till the end of time
I know you do the same for me no question
You only make this choice once in your lifetime
And if you ever fall into the deep end
Remember me, I won't leave you stranded

I see you at your wake
Time don't make no mistakes
I'll give you everything so everything can
I see you wanna change
But I can't just wait all day
I'll give you time, you give me time, I'll make you

Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway
Runaway

For the longest time, I've waited for this moment
I was stallin', strollin', rollin'
Took alot for me to overcome the fear
But let me say this, the truth will set you free
I leave my weaknesses all on the table
And find a way to turn it all around
I'll make you realise you're more than able
To runaway, see come and take my hand

I see you at your wake
Time don't make no mistakes
I'll give you everything so everything can
I see you wanna change
But I can't just wait all day, yeah-yeah
I'll give you time, you give me time, I'll make you
