

A Mended Rhyme

Tad Morose

He sat there so idle just sat on the ground
I watched as he mumbled but I heard no sound
I dared not go closer I dared not at first but somehow I got there

My son said the father I can not explain
The reason I left you has caused me much pain
I dared not come closer
I dared not at first but somehow I got here

Sometimes I hear them in my mind
Dare I join them now
It's A mended rhyme at a preset time
Join them now or lose them forever
A silent mime
The final chime Just join them now

He did not lift his eyes just sat there and cried
Now I know the words I heard him say
I joined him on my knees and then even I cried
He wiped away my tears that's when I heard him say...
