Well how have you been
After you left me the day after you left me
Everything I got from you, all of it
Was false, it all became false

You came to me like a dream
You were like a warm breath to me
You didn't have a reason
You were always like that back then

How have you been, it's like how I was before
I'm fine... I'm already... already...
You're doing well without me... you, are back to
How it was before you knew me already already

Starting today there are things I have to be prepared for
If I see you anywhere and whenever I do
I have to be ready to meet you
If someone remembers about our relationship
And asks me how we're doing
I need to say that you're just a friend to me...

You came to me like a dream
You were like a warm breath to me
You didn't have a reason
You were always like that back then

How have you been, it's like how I was before

I'm fine... I'm already... already...
You're doing well without me... you, are back to
How it was before you knew me already already

The day I became alone
Words I spat out behind your back
Don't forget about us
So we can reminisce at any time
That's what I said
That's what I said but
It's easier to let you go
That's how I feel now, already

How have you been, it's like how I was before
I'm fine... I'm already... already...
You're doing well without me, you are back to
How it was before you knew me, already, already
