Baby you make me want
To be a better man

Are you waiting? I can't keep
My promise again tonight
The needle of the clock changes
Today to yesterday

My swallowed sighs
Becomes one with the night breeze
So sorry I looked up at the sky without a star
Silence please laugh as usual
And forgive me

There's not enough time
To become my own self
Even if I want to meet you
I can't meet you soon, I can't let go of your hand

Baby you make me want to be
Wanna be a better man, for you
I swear I'll a better man
I'll wait until you fell asleep on the sofa
And I'll kiss your cheeks
Baby you make me want
To be a better man

I'm singing not to wake you up
Softly a love song
I promise, I swear
My love won't change

Even at night, when I'm worn out and damaged
Or unable to move (always)
You only have to say a single word and my hands turn into Wings, I will change myself

If I had not met you
What kind of myself would I be
Even by then I think
I wouldn't be good for you
To see you forever
I will change myself

Baby you make me want to be
Wanna be a better man, for you
I swear I'll a better man
You sleeping on the sofa
In your dreams
Baby you make me want
To be a better man

Make me a, make me a, make me a better man
Make me a, make me a, make me a better man
Haah ahhhhh I won't separate from you

Baby you make
Baby you make me want to be
Wanna be a better man, for you

Baby you make me want
To be a better man
