Baby watching an eclipse, -clipse, -clipse, -clipse

I just want to lay my freezing hands and feet over you
I didn't even think that I'd be stealing your warmth away
You probably didn't either

Every time I get hurt
I run away into the shadows
Before I even realize, it begins to gain control of me
Seizing me

Tell me why, just (tell me) a way to escape
Set me free, just set me free
My heart turns pitch black

Darkness (black) bites in, bright light shines around
When we align with each other, will you or will I be the moon
With a love that consumes and closely

Embraces the other (get closer)
We become one woo

Only if I knew how to
Cry when I felt sad
Only if I had the courage to lay myself out bare
You probably wish the same

Tell me why, how do I live
Light the way, please light the way
My heart cries out in pain

Darkness (black) bites in, bright light shines around
When we look up, will the moon take its chance yeah
Taking control, closing in
Obscuring the other (get closer)
The skies becomes one

Hands up, because it only lasts a moment
Hands up, be careful
Be careful so you don't miss it

Darkness (black) bites in Bright light shines around
When we align with each other
Will you or will I be the moon yeah
With a love that consumes and closely
Embraces the other (get closer)
We become one woo
