I'm breathing, pointlessly
We're in the same place but you're in a different world
Your eyes are far away, avoiding me
Only a deep silence is clearly heard

Now heart stop beating
Feelings have stopped
You and I, heart stop beating
Feelings have cooled

I felt you fading one by one
But I pretended not to see anything and held you
Your thoughts were so transparent and clear
But I couldn't read it at all

Like walking in different times, we feel like strangers
Our eyes have gone awry, only sighs can be heard
As if someone turned down the volume, silence comes again
As it traps us

You hug me tight but my heart doesn't race
You're not even curious about what I want
Even if we turn time back, it can't stop me
Even if we stop time, I can't catch you

Now really, heart stop beating
Feelings have stopped
You and I, heart stop beating
Feelings have cooled
Oh yeah yeah

Even if we end this here
And coolly turn around
It wouldn't feel weird at all
Someone just needs to step up and be strong
I can't chase these feelings away
I can't push back these words anymore
Let's not drag this out any longer
We can't get any closer, we're just in different times

Like walking in different times, we feel like strangers
Our eyes have gone awry, only sighs can be heard
As if someone turned down the volume, silence comes again
As it traps us
