You will fall asleep now
Let go of me so I can fall into a deep dream
I lay me down inside the calm abyss
And erase the circuits to my memories

Every scene in my head is a memory of you
I don't think I see a time without you
Even when I take out the secret note within my heart
It's filled with stories about you

When I open my eyes I'm always in the same spot
I hypnotize myself so I can forget you
But I want to see you so badly
When I come back to reality it's still you

After all it's you

Memories of us that were dazzlingly beautiful
I keep emptying them but it fills again
I don't think it's ever going to end
The more I endure I get sicker in thought of you

When I open my eyes I'm always in the same spot
I hypnotize myself so I can forget you
But I want to see you so badly
When I come back to reality it's still you

I don't think I was ever this desperate
I can't hold onto you nor can I leave

When I wake up, it's here, under your shade
Maybe actually I don't want to wake up

I don't think I can overcome
I don't think I can in the end
I've fallen under your hypnosis
And can't forget you
The only person who can free me
Is only you, you are the only one
