Get drunk with this strange mood
You can let yourself go
But you can't escape from me
Right now, when we've become so listless

So your neatly brushed hair can get tangled
Leave it alone, you're beautiful, oh oh
Even if your proper stance becomes loosened
It's alright, look straight at me, oh yeah

The moves are starting again, under the dark lights
Your elegant gestures, secretive looks
You reflect on the clear window, your flickering moves
With this strange feeling, this breathtaking attraction

(You got got the rhythm
You got got the rhythm)
Under the dark lights
Your moves captivate me
Your elegant gestures, secretive looks

For a moment,
I erased everything
Only relying on my sight
With awe, oh oh, I'm only looking at you

So your carefully applied makeup can smudge
Leave it alone, you're beautiful, oh oh
Even if your crisp shirt gets all wrinkled
It's alright, look straight at me, eh eh yeah

The moves are starting again, under the dark lights
Your elegant gestures, secretive looks
You reflect on the clear window, your flickering moves
With this strange feeling, this breathtaking attraction

(You got got the rhythm
You got got the rhythm)
Your moves captivate me under the dark lights
Your elegant gestures, secretive looks

Not a single face expression, not a single sentence
Can express all of you
Because we're perfect just the way we are
Don't even worry at all
Just like that, repeat
Just like that, repeat

(You got got the rhythm
You got got the rhythm)
Your moves captivate me under the dark lights
Your elegant gestures, secretive looks

(You got got the rhythm
