Come closer

Just let me know about you yeah

Come closer come closer very slowly

Soak you, soak me deep into my heart

So that I won't be surprised baby

Hold your breath calmly

You're slowly spreading baby

I'm dyed in your mysteriousness

Moment by moment dreams pass by

I hope I don't wake from my dream of you forever

I pray with all my heart baby like a little boy

Time stopped the moment I met you

One by one one by one

This is a space that's open only for me

I step forward without letting anyone know

There's a mysterious scent that leads me to you

One by one one by one

One by one one by one

One by one one by one

Somewhere deep in my heart

I fill that place slowly with you

Did the world go to sleep into the darkness

You are the only one I can see

The more it's like this the more I want to know you

Baby you are my only unknown

The secrets that you have

Baby I hope that you whisper them to me

The sound of your steps

Is the only sound that rings by my ear

Every time I get one step closer

The whole world seems to shake

What I can see and hear and everything

Seems to be you

One by one one by one
Inside a secret heart
What was never opened before
I carefully enter
And turn each page without letting anyone know

One by one one by one
One by one one by one
One by one one by one
Somewhere deep in my heart
I fill that place slowly with you

I can't go back to before when I knew you
Baby you know don't you know
One day you've filled me up all the way
You're just like a mirage baby
