You're so bad even till the end
The last words you said with your back turned
Were the cruel and potent, goodbye

I got so mad, I lost my cool
Fine, it's over now, yeah
I don't know, I did the best I could
Although all of me is breaking down because of you

Darling you
My hope inside this fear is you
Darling you
Even though the world tells me
At the end of this long journey, nothing lasts forever
Darling darling you
It's only you for me

How many times are you just gonna cry?
Please stop
Just date someone who doesn't make you cry then

I hate myself for saying such cruel words
But I hate you more for making me like this, yeah
How much longer do we have to be in pain?

All of you is breaking down in one moment

But
Darling you
My hope inside this fear is you
Darling you
Even though the world tells me
At the end of this long journey, nothing lasts forever
Darling darling you
It's only you for me

I'm drunk with the strong alcohol that is you
And I'm swaying again today
I'm lost in your maze but
Darling you

I'm crashing against your wall
And I've crumbled down again
But if it's you, I'm happy

Darling you
My hope inside this fear is you
Darling you
Even though the world tells me
At the end of this long journey, nothing lasts forever
Darling darling you
It's only you for me
