The familiar song
That I used to listen to with you
It softly plays in the taxi
The driver suddenly starts talking to me
But I don't really wanna answer right now

I remember this road
That we used to drive on together
With the beautiful evening sunset
And my reflection in your smiling eyes
Now I'm just on an empty road

I'm standing here
Cause it feels like you'll be here too
I'm standing here
Though I know you're not here
I'm standing here
Cause I miss you so much

Now I'm just on an empty road

The familiar neighborhood
That I used to walk around with you
Stopped at the red light
I'm just blankly staring
All those people
Where are they going?
When I'm so lost without you

I remember this road
That we used to drive on together
You twinkled like the stars in the night sky
You're still floating in my heart
Now I'm just on an empty road

I'm standing here
Cause it feels like you'll be here too
I'm standing here
Though I know you're not here
I'm standing here
Cause I miss you so much
Now I'm just on an empty road

I'm standing here
Cause it feels like you'll be here too
I'm standing here
Though I know you're not here
I'm standing here
Cause I miss you so much
Now I'm just on an empty road
