It's been on my mind for a while
Got to let this off my chest
Before... it's too late

(I can't let you go, you gotta let him go
I can't let you go, you gotta... listen)

I've been telling you everyday I smile when I see you.
I've told you so many times
You're the love of my life.
In this world full of lies, in my nervous heart
The one thing I believe in is you.

When you get nervous thinking that my feelings may change
Remember I laughed when I told you that would never happen.
A direction with no end, My completely empty heart
The only place I can lean on is you.

And I hate that my heart sometimes wavers
Even today I get carried away by the world
And you get erased

Even if I cheat, don't you ever cheat, baby
Even if I forget you, don't you ever forget me, lady
If once in a while I don't contact you and I go out to drink
Even if I ever meet
another girl's gaze
Look only at me.

You say that you spent all night waiting up for me
And with tears in your eyes "I think you changed."
So many nights you ask me to tell you
That my feeling are the same as when I first met you.

Although it seems that I am miserable without you Honestly sometimes you suffocate me
The never ending arguments, the long sighs.
Although the only place for you to lean is on me

I hate that sometimes I get sick of you
Even today I smile
And lose myself without my knowledge

Even if I cheat, don't you ever cheat, baby
Even if I forget you, don't you ever forget me, lady
If once in a while I don't contact you and I go out to drink
Even if I ever meet
another girl's gaze
Look only at me.

I know well that I'm self-centered
And I spend my days in meaningless activities

Becoming filthier, baby.
I want to leave your purity as it is,
This is my sincerity, my belief in you
Don't leave me even in death

Even if I cheat, don't you ever cheat, baby
Even if I forget you, don't you ever forget me, lady
If once in a while I don't contact you and I go out to drink
Even if I ever meet
another girl's gaze
Look only at me.
