I even don't know your name, girl but I will get you somehow just got let me know where you at cuz your man's coming

It's as if you know me just from the first glance
When I saw that familiar smile of yours
My footsteps stopped as well

Time flies by with a blink of an eye
But I remember those feelings from that moment
Anyhow it feels insecure
So can I try it again

When I turn around to see you again
You are only getting farther
Day n Night High n Low
Today I am on this spot again so I can search for you

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Please tell me right now
So I can start my love
Where u at girl

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Someday when I am called
You will notice that I am already standing beside you

It's as if you understand my loneliness

Those expressions of yours is unforgettable
You know how I feel
Uh, then I wake up in my zone
Blink twice n you are gone

Perhaps you are having a hard time like I'm
If this cold world collides and tires you out
Please wait until I can meet you

No matter how much I run to find you
You are only getting farther
Day n Night High n Low
As usual, today I am
Over the skies and shouting towards your path

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Please tell me right now
So I can start my love
Where u at girl

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Someday when I am called
You will notice that I am already standing beside you

now let's go

Let me break this down
Somewhere today
You, who might be listening to this song
I would like to say that I'll promise you right now that You were meant for me,
So I will be there for you

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Please tell me right now

I just wanna know if you feel the same,
(Where u at? Where u at?)
Someday when I am called
You will notice that I am already standing beside you
