Falling in love
To you I'm an Option
You and I were different from the beginning
Broken Heart
Your missed Mention
I'm used to it

I think I lost my mind
But it's my kind of love
Without leaving anything
Pour everything out and flop
Suddenly at one point
I see myself exhausted
Even though I'm trying my best

So I can't love you
Even though I do
Even if I push you away
I can't beat you

Even I abandon myself
And lose myself more
The irony is that you shine more

So I N V U
I N V U
I N V U

Don't lean
Don't even expect
Even if I repeat it over and over
With your one touch
Watching me collapse
How do you feel about it?

I guess I lost my mind
Yeah it's my kind of love
Like it's always the first time
It hurts me again since I'm so clumsy
Before I get dull
Before I even get healed
I mess up my mind

So I can't love you
Even though I do
Even if I push you away
I can't beat you

Even I abandon myself
And lose myself more
The irony is that you shine more

So I N V U
I N V U
I N V U

The cooled warmth
The broken heart
Keeps scratching me
It hurts but I can't stop it
So when you leave
Please make it easy
Cause I N V U
