Through the night (Through the night)
All through the night

You gotta come take my love
Hey ooh

Hidden behind the curtain
Darkness fills up in the world
It's a night I fall asleep from exhaustion
(Every night like this come on)
I wake up again instinctively
My considerable longing reflects again

This place I'm left alone (Right here)
You aren't there at my birthday (My birthday)
I don't want to get used to it
Don't you wanna know, wanna know
As I swallow my heart
It keeps unfolding, baby

Inside of my tangled up head
One thing I cannot erase
Small memory of the fading you
Even if I try to bury it
I can't get out of it
Through the night (Through the night)

The night deepens
In this heart that I thought I'd emptied
I keep repeating you
(Wanna remember like that)
Remaining at the end of that dim memory
I'm going to let your name flutter all away

Movies we would both watch
Now I watch it alone (My birthday)
I have to get used to it
Don't you wanna know, wanna know
Your scent that strongly lingers
It grazes the tip of my nose, baby

Inside of my tangled up head
One thing I cannot erase
Small memory of the fading you
Even if I try to bury it
I can't get out of it
Through the night (Through the night)

If I leave for an unfamiliar place somewhere
Will I be able to erase everything?
All through the night, bit by bit
All through the night, from you

I’m getting farther away ha

From the faint memories (Yeah)
We shouldn’t have let us go
Even if I turn back the time to then
In this futile dream I’ve fallen deeply into
I’m unable to wake up
Through the night (Through the night)

Through the night (All through the night)
(I’ll do it) Through the night
Even if it’s an empty dream
Please never wake me up (Come and get me)

Through the night (Hey yeah)
Through the night (Through the night)
All through the night
