Ooh, ooh, rain
Ooh, dreaming in the rain

Hmm, yeah, hmm

I look at you that starts pouring out
Then I freeze in the times that are so clear, as I am wet with the memories
Then I draw out the beautiful you in the rain

The long and dazzling season
Will it fade away and stain inside the photo album?

The night is growing deeper
Promises that I can't forget
Your warm embrace, goodbye

When it rains, the memories fall down and the pain spreads
I look at you that starts pouring out
Then I freeze in the times that are so clear, as I am wet with the memories
Then I draw out the beautiful you in the rain

In the black and white world, you were the one ray of light
(Rain) Be the rain and come to me, brightly shine on my soul

Your soft whispers under the umbrella
It spreads in a corner of my heart, I can hear you
The sound of the rain sounds peaceful, as if it's asking me how my day was
In the raindrops of you, colored with the faraway memories

Woo rain, woo... dreaming in the rain
