I'm angry for some reason, oh, deep in my heart
Words come up that I've kept hidden
You linger in my head, your one word that stings
Can't spit it out, it's unlike me

All of the words wrapped around you
Oh, blah blah blah
When anyone sees it, you
You're such a bad guy
Why was I pulled in, like a fool

Ah, your truth can be different
Ah, should I let you hear my honesty

You got me smoking cigarettes
I'm in stress, baby
My breathing is suffocated
My heart thumps, but
As I think of you, baby
Awaken my sleeping heart
This night when I think of you
When the world becomes dark
I'll deliver to you my shaking heart, oh
I can't escape your side

How did I get pulled in like this?
Temptation inside of fatal scent
Quickening heartbeat, this peculiar pull
It's too strong to refuse

Sometimes, that familiar word
Oh, blah blah blah
Ordinary confessions
Whispers of that love
I'm slightly jealous of it

Ah, how much longer do you want me to wait?
Ah, why are you the only one who doesn't know my heart?

You got me smoking cigarettes
I'm in stress, baby
My breathing is suffocated
My heart thumps, but
As I think of you, baby
Awaken my sleeping heart
This night when I think of you
When the world becomes dark

I'll deliver to you my shaking heart, oh
I can't escape your side

Deep night, the place you took up
In the reverberation that permeates deeply
I unknowingly whisper your name once
The shadow that is strongly absorbed inside of me
In your pull that spreads out again
I can't get out of it

You got me smoking cigarettes
I'm in stress, baby
I'm going crazy right now
My feelings are palpitating again
Why? as I fill you in, baby
I want it more and more
This night, I think of you
When the whole world of asleep
I'll deliver to you my burning heart, oh
I can't escape your side
