You're my star
Yeah u r
Oh, u r, u r
Oh, u r

For a long time, in my heart
Full of clouds, it rains
For warm sun to shine
I sincerely hoped
Raindrops that wet my shoulder
When I dried, I alone
Was so afraid that it would remain

You are like a light, after the rain has passed
You come up in my heart, like this

Cause you are, the light that fell on me
You are, like a beautiful dream
With seven rays, the whole world
Is dyed even more beautifully, always
Yeah u r

On top of an empty green hill
Rainbow becomes a roof
I lay still underneath

And look at the sky
This throbbing I felt for the first time
With peacefulness of the world
More loveable than anyone else

When I turn my head, at your smile
Unknowingly, I reach my hand out, like this

Cause you are, the light that fell on me
You are, like a beautiful dream
With seven rays, the whole world
Is dyed even more beautifully, always
Yeah u r

When the rain that wets my windows stops
Under the rainbow, you must be waiting
The stories I couldn't say
All of the secrets I couldn't do
I want to deliver it today

You are always beside me
You are inside of my tender heart
Even more shining and beautifully
It fills the night sky

You're my star
Yeah u r
Oh, u r, u r
Oh, u r
